Myth: "Digital assets are only for tech-savvy individuals."

Fact: DAIS simplifies digital asset investing, making it accessible to all, regardless of technical expertise.

DAIS vs. Unregulated Digital Assets: A Smarter Choice

FEATURE	DAIS	Unregulated Digital Assets
Regulatory Oversight	U.S.-regulated Bitcoin ETFs, SIPC insurance	U.S.-regulated Bitcoin ETFs, SIPC insurance
Security	SIPC insurance, institutional custody	No insurance, vulnerable to hacking
Tax Efficiency	Maximize returns with India's GIFT city framework	Tax complexity, high capital gains
Customization	Tailored portfolios for alpha performance	Limited customization, high speculation
Transparency	Real-time updates, expert analysis	Low transparency, unreliable data
Risk Management	Diversified strategies, regulated platforms	High risk, no oversight
Liquidity	High liquidity through regulated ETFs	Volatile, liquidity issues
Performance	Strong performance in Bitcoin ETFs	Highly volatile, unpredictable losses
Customer Support	Personalized support and expert advice	Poor support and unreliable service

Myth: "Digital assets are too risky for long-term investments."

Fact: Digital assets like Bitcoin have outperformed traditional assets over time, and with the right strategy, risk can be effectively managed for long-term growth.

Risk Disclosure

This brochure is for informational and educational purposes only and does not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy any US securities, Bitcoin ETFs, or related Investment products.

Investing in securities such as stocks, ETFs, and Bitcoin ETFs involves significant risks, including the potential loss of principal. These investments are speculative and subject to factors such as market volatility, regulatory changes, and economic conditions, which can adversely affect their value. Bitcoin ETFs, in particular, carry additional risks related to cryptocurrency, including price volatility, regulatory uncertainty, and technological vulnerabilities.

Past performance is not indicative of future results, and there is no guarantee of achieving investment objectives. Investors should carefully review all offering materials, fully understand the associated risks, and consult qualified financial, legal, and tax advisors before making any investment decisions.

Regulatory

U.S. Securities, including ETFs, are offered through an arrangement between 9Point Capital, as an Introducing Firm, and ViewTrade International IFSC Private Limited (VTI IFSC). VTI IFSC is a broker-dealer registered with the International Financial Services Centres Authority and a member of NSE IFSC Limited. VTI IFSC has received a No-Objection Certificate from NSE IFSC for Global Market Access.
